

Modern Britain: Who are we now?

72% of people aged 50 and over when asked said that they feel proud of being English. This is higher than younger people (16 to 25 years old). Only 45% of 16 to 25 year olds say they are proud to be English.

Is “being English” simply about being born in England? Or are there other factors which make a person English?

---

---

---

---

---

How has being English affected your identity? Tick the boxes if you think that living in England has affected this part of your identity. Cross the box if you think being English is irrelevant to this part of yourself and has had no influence.

The language you speak (native language)		Freedom of speech: How you express yourself and share your thoughts
Your sense of humour		The laws you must follow
Diet		Your I.Q
Your religious views		Your goals and aspirations for the future.
How you dress		The music you like
Your name		Your sexuality
The colour of your eyes		Your moral code (personal sense of right and wrong)

Modern Britain: Who are we now?

Your ability to read		Your skin colour/ race
----------------------	--	------------------------	--